

NNE Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us

1. Introduction

Northern Networking Events Ltd is a Company which offers the service of Association Management, Professional Conference Organisation and Event Management. The Company was incorporated in March 2004 (Company No 265187) after a rebranding of the existing company Northern Networking Ltd which was incorporated in December 1995. With experience in organising both small and large meetings throughout the world, specialising in medical, scientific and business Conferences, we pride ourselves in always offering our clients a professional, friendly and reliable service. In addition to our Conferences and events services, we work on a regular basis with a number of clients offering our expertise in Association and Training Management, website design, business consultancy and finance services.

This policy sets out the basis on which we will process on behalf of our clients (and under their privacy policy agreement) personal data we collect about you, or that you provide to us. Please read the following carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your data.

2. Information we may collect about you

We may collect and process the following data about you:

- Information that you provide:
 - by completing your membership application and renewal form

 - by requesting further information, services or content; and
 - by completing surveys and questionnaires.

This includes your title, gender, full name, address and other communication contact information, job title, company affiliation, membership of other professional organisations, and payment records.

- Details of your visits to our website. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - details of the computer or other device that you are using;
 - details of the web browser you are using;
 - details of your language settings;
 - traffic data;
 - location data;
 - weblogs; and
 - other communication data.
- Information provided by reputable third-party data sources such as our suppliers (print, design etc).

If you contact us, we may keep a record of that correspondence, including any information provided or required to resolve your enquiry or issue.

3. Cookies

You can find more about how cookies are used and opting out of their use at: cookies information.

4. Storage of personal data

We have implemented appropriate security measures to protect information from:

- loss,
- misuse,
- unauthorised access,
- disclosure,
- alteration, or
- destruction

Our security systems include authenticated access to internal databases. We also encrypt and anonymise data wherever it is appropriate to do so. We regularly take back-ups of our data. We regularly review overall web security and audit procedures.

In conforming with data protection laws, we endeavour to implement appropriate procedures to protect your personal data and to prevent any unauthorised access or misuse of it. Our servers, on which your personal data is kept, are located in the United Kingdom.

Please be aware that the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. We cannot guarantee the security of your data when transmitted via the internet between us: any such transmission is at your own risk.

5. Uses made of the information

We use information held about you in the following ways:

- To ensure that content from our site is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer.
- To provide you with relevant information, products and services of a type that you request from us or which we feel may interest you.
- To carry out the requirements of any contracts entered into between you and us.
- To allow you to use the interactive features of our website, when you choose to do so.
- To notify you about changes to our service.

We are committed to responsible email sending practices. We only send email to individuals whose data has been lawfully and fairly obtained. If at any time you do not wish to receive emails from us, please use the unsubscribe functionality contained in all of our communications.
